Mr. H murick was the only one concerned who felt inclined to talk. He charged the District Attorney's office with having framed up the charges in order to further its crusade against the Polleo Department and with having chosen Col. Porter for the victim because he was a shining mark.

The lawyer said his client's inno cense of any misconduct whatsoever would be easily proved, that he is "a high grade American gentleman" and that Jim Smith, the Assistant District Attorney who has been hunting a vice trust and who presented the Porter evidence to the Grand Jury, is "the greatest publicity agent the country ever law."

GREAT VOTE A SURPRISE

Even if President Resubmits Treaty It Will Be Pigeonholed by Committee.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. Washington, March 19 .- By the vote of 40 ayes to 35 noes the Senate at 6 o'clock this afternoon rejected the resolution to ratify the German peace treaty. The motion required a two-thirds majority to carry and failed to receive it.

If all Senators had been in their sears and voting the result would have been ayes 57, noes 39. As sixty-four votes were required to ratify the treaty, even this was seven votes short of the necessary number. Senator Hitchcock (Neb.), the acting Democratic leader, admitted after the Senate had adjourned that the treaty is dead. He said he did not anticipate that a further effort would be made to reconsider, although he admitted that the ruling by President Pro Tem. Cummins, holding it impossible, was at least of rather doubtful validity.

Immediately after the resolution of ratification had been defeated the Senate adopted a resolution instructing its secretary to return the treaty to the President and notify him that having failed to procure for it the necessary vote, the Senate did not advise and consent to the ratinca tion. This carried, 47 to 37.

A few minutes later a motion to reconsider the vote on ratification was made by Senator Robinson (Ark.), and Senator Watson (Ind.) immedistely moved to table it. To table this motion would end possibility of reconsideration, but six "mild reservationisis" Republicans voted with the Democrats against tabling, and it _ lost, ayes, 34; noes, 43.

Impossible to Reconsider.

For a few minutes the parliamen tary situation was chaotic. Then on point of order the Chair (Senator Cummins, Ia.) ruled that the motion to reconsider had been made too late and was therefore null, because before it was made the Senate had voted to send the treaty back to the President. It therefore could not now reconsider the ratification vote.

Senator Lodge (Mass.), the Republican leader, said he had no objection to taking another vote on the ratification of the treaty, and thereupon asked unanimous consent for it at once. Senators Brandegee (Conn.) and Borah (Idaho) said that several Senators had left the chamber and one or two had left the city after the rejection of the treaty had been announced and they would not agree to another vote unless assured that every absent Senator was paired.

At this point Senator Norris (Neb.) suggested the absence of a quorum. This was a manœuver to rain time, which the opponents of the trenty needed to meet the situation that confronted them. They did not want a second vote immediately, fearing a trick to ratify on the second it had been rejected. Senator Curtis (Kan.) immediately jumped to his feet and made a point of order against this motion, and the Senate was discussing the question of order when Senator Hitchcock held a hurried whispered conference with Senator Robinson.
